LOCAL PTA ACTIVITIES

North High

Parent education before marriage was discussed by Kendall Jenkins, member of California Youth Authority, at the meeting of the North High PTA. His topic was "Community Influence on Family Life." Mr. Jenkins also discussed the undesirable places frequented by teenagers known as "hot spots."

A question and answer period followed.

Elected to the nominating committee were Mrs. Lloyd Van de Vert, Mrs. C. L. Thompson, Mrs. Robert Payne, Mrs. William H. Bayliff and Mrs. C. R. Ross. Alternates are Mrs. W. A. Wright and Mrs. C. B. Colvic.

Special introductions were given Mrs. Francis Stoeckle, district psychologist, gave a talk on "Our Effect on Our Children" at the recent Hillside PTA meeting.

Announcement was made of the opening in February of the new cafeteria. Thursday, Feb. 21, there will be held in the new cafeteria a potluck Jitney dinner. The public is invited and anyone who comes in to bring his own silverware and dish. Each serving will cost five cents. In addition, each family that participates should donate a casserole, dessert or a salad. Further information will be published on the Potluck Jitney Dinner.

Peter Barker told of plans for the children's participation in a safety poster contest. Individual and perpetual trophies will be awarded on the basis of the grade level of a child.

Mention was made of the Schools Incorporation, which is a protective measure for all PTA meetings at the school.

The meeting was closed with the announcement that any information required on the forthcoming Potluck Jitney Dinner could be obtained by calling Mrs. Carl Renfro.

First Scholarship Plan Is Introduced by PTA Council

Torrance Council PTA has inaugurated the first scholarship plan to assist a graduate from a Torrance High School in entering the field of education.

The amount of the scholarship or scholarships will depend on the monies received as donations from the 20 associations desiring to participate in this field of endeavor.

The letter of scholarship will be awarded to the students at the Annual Open Council meeting in May. One-half of the sum will be given upon registration at a college of his or her choice and the second half at the beginning of the second semester in February.

The Scholarship committee shall consist of the Torrance Council PTA President, Council school education chairman, and three members at large appointed by the president and ratified by the board. The council parliamentarian will serve in an advisory capacity.

Scholarship committee consisted of Mrs. William Crooker, Torrance Council Education Chairman, Mrs. Francis Stoeckle, Torrance PTA president, Mrs. Glen Grimsley, Torrance Council Parliamentarian and Mrs. Mark Wright, Member-at-Large.

Meadow Park

With the January executive board meeting of Meadow Park PTA held in the new school, board members were busy planning their regular association meeting. Working on plans for the carnival, found each member enthusiastically planning booths and other attractions. The area around the new school will be the scene of the carnival, to be held Feb. 16.

With the removal of school executive offices to the new building, the area in the older bungalow will be utilized for the school library. Circulation of books is being planned for Feb. 1.

On Wednesday Jan. 16 the parents of Meadow Park School children were given their first opportunity to view the new school. The regular PTA meeting was held in the Cafeteria. The theme for the evening was, "Fathers' Contribution to the Community." A short business meeting was conducted by the president, Mrs. J. T. Anagnost. The association passed a motion to decorate a car for the "All-America City" parade. It was also reported that excavation at the corner of 230th and Hawthorne, was for a traffic signal. New vice principal Richard Brown was introduced, along with two new teachers.

At this time the evening was turned over to the men. J. T. Anagnost opened the program with a, "This Is His Life" skit. "His" life being none other than the principal, Herbert Farris. The evening came to a close with songs by "Meadow Park Singing Fathers." The refreshments were by the first grade room mothers and fathers. The next meeting will be held Feb. 20.
